

Youth and Children's Worker

ASSEMBLIES OF GOD
GREAT BRITAIN

St Pauls is a lively Assemblies of God church with a strong emphasis on community, family, and young people. Based in Worcester city centre we operate out of an Anglican building in the heart of the city with extensive community outreach programs. This is an opportunity to join the ministry team of a growing church, reporting directly into the Senior leadership team.

We are looking for someone gifted in age-appropriate evangelism and discipleship, enabling children and young people to grow in their relationship with Jesus. You will be working with an existing team of volunteers that already serve our children's ministry and with an existing youth team with great support.

What skill and experience do you need?

We are looking for someone gifted in age-appropriate evangelism and discipleship, enabling children and young people to grow in their relationship with Jesus. You will be working with an existing team of volunteers that already serve our children's ministry and with an existing youth team with great support.

We recognise that most candidates will have greater skills with either children or teenagers. The ideal candidate will have experience of running discipleship activities with either children or young people, such as Sunday School and teaching, experience in evangelistic children's ministry, for instance running a KidzKlub and/or summer holiday club or youth groups. The ideal candidate will be able to work hands on with youth and children, plus lead, develop and resource the existing teams.

Please see attached Job Description for further details.

Salary: £18,000 - £21,000 depending on experience

Hours: Full Time/37.5 - 5 days - including Sunday

Closing Date: 31/10/2021
